To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Tom and Linda Morse: Legacy Properties West

This is merely to express my view that Tom and Linda Morse (and Legacy Properties West) are quite possibly the finest, most dedicated residential real estate agents I have ever had the pleasure of working with over the past 25 years. During my career as an attorney specializing in real property matters, I have assisted clients in purchasing or disposing of billions of dollars in real property. I have worked with hundreds of real estate professionals, and never once worked with anyone that could hold a candle to Tom and Linda Morse. They repeatedly went way out of their way to make us feel comfortable with their listing, lined up all the subcontractors required to facilitate the listing's remodel, contracted for many of the necessary inspections, and even stored some of our furniture for us (without charge) before the home was ready to be occupied.

Indeed, the Morse's were so solicitous and understanding, and indeed, so accommodating to our needs, that my wife and I eventually became reluctant to ask them for any further assistance, believing they had already been so helpful that to ask them to do more would be wholly unreasonable. Indeed, we have become so fond of the Morse's that we consider them true friends, and hope they feel the same about us, despite the fact we've no doubt been overly demanding clients.

If you have any question about retaining Tom or Linda, or their company, Legacy Properties West, please give me a call. I hope I can convince you to seal the deal.

Sincerely,

Marc R. Lieberman
